HAPPY JUNETEENTH

CELEBRATING LIBERATION · HONORING LEGACY · BUILDING TOMORROW

Today, we commemorate Juneteenth and we pause to honor the strength, resilience, and enduring spirit of our ancestors who continued to believe in freedom, even when freedom was delayed. Today is a reminder of resilience and the ongoing responsibility to protect the freedoms our ancestors fought to secure.

As we honor this day, we also recognize that true freedom includes financial stewardship, economic empowerment and the ability to build a lasting legacy for our families, communities and Sisterhood.

Being proud members of Delta Sigma Theta, we are intentional about preserving our legacy while preparing for our future. It is imperative that the resources entrusted to Delta continue to support our mission, our programs, our members, and our communities.

I humbly seek your support for Eastern Region Member of the National Finance Committee and I ask you to Bank on Me for F.D.I.C.!

Financial Acumen, grounded in years of experience with the ability to support, guide and understand diverse perspectives to provide guidance that is both practical and strategic;

Dedication to serving and supporting our chapters with consistency, reliability, and responsiveness;

Integrity to lead with honesty, accountability, transparency and trust;

Collaboration with each of you to ensure our chapters are trained, informed and prepared to meet compliance expectations with accuracy and timeliness.

Speaking of compliance deadlines, I extend my very best wishes to all those working diligently to meet the important June 30 deadline. Congratulations as well to those preparing to conclude a successful term of service at the end of this month! Your commitment and leadership are deeply appreciated.

If given the opportunity to serve, I look forward to supporting your chapter officers in the coming sorority year and partnering with you. Please reach out to me personally if you have any questions at Terri4NationalFinance@gmail.com. Check out my virtual campaign home

May this Juneteenth inspire us to continue strengthening our financial foundations and investing in a future where freedom is fully realized for generations to come.

With sisterly appreciation,

Terri
