

Dear Dynamic and Historic Sorors of the EAST,

Happy Sisterhood Month! It is my hope that you have enjoyed celebrating and making lifelong memories. I was happy to have had the opportunity to do so and am proud to have attended another wonderful Delta Days in the Nation's Capital, where we came together to live out our legacy of Social Action.

It is with humility that I greet you today, as we begin campaign season. I am honored to begin this journey with you as we look forward to our 55th Eastern Regional Conference in Baltimore this August! I am Soror Terri A. Johnson, your slated Candidate for Eastern Region Member of the National Finance Committee, and I am grateful for the opportunity to share my vision, my commitment, and my candidacy with you.

My experiences at the local, regional, and national levels have strengthened my understanding of our Sorority's fiscal responsibilities. These experiences — coupled with over forty-one continuous years of active, engaged membership — have prepared me to serve faithfully and with excellence. The sorors of the Eastern Region have poured into me since my initiation; you, my sorors, have inspired me, encouraged me, and I remain committed to doing the work with integrity and purpose.

Over the next few months, I look forward to connecting with and hearing from you. Your voice matters to me and I invite you to engage with my campaign via my website at: www.Terri4NationalFinance.com or please feel free to reach out to me directly at Terri4NationalFinance@gmail.com.

I hope that my extensive background in Finance, coupled with my leadership skills, will affirm why “You Can Bank On Me for F.D.I.C.”

Thank you for your time, your sisterhood, and your commitment to the work of Delta. I look forward to seeing you throughout the region as we embark on this journey together. Thank you for your consideration and support.

Sisterly,

Terri
